Wait!!
Adam has been really busy with school and work. He does not have a car, so he travels by using the bus. But most of the time, he does not know when the bus shows up. Therefore, he ends up missing it.
Missing the bus causes Adam to be very late to class and his grades are struggling due to it.
Adam's friend tells him about the Don't Miss the Bus App. He tells Adam it helps keep track of when buses will arrive so he won't miss another bus.
Upcoming Buses
Bus 5: 3:30
Bus 7: 3:45
Bus 11: 4:00
Adam downloads the app and loves how he can see when buses will arrive.
Adam also loves the features like being able to see the where he is on the map.
Adam now never misses the bus and is always on time for his classes and work.

1 Henry is making his rounds picking up and dropping off his passengers at their destinations.
1
2 When he's finished dropping off the last of his passengers, he heads to the college campus to pick and take the students to their stops.
2
3 As the students board the bus, Henry greets them with a nice smile and a cheerful "Good Morning!"
3
4 After making sure everyone is seated and ready to go, Henry closes the doors and begins to pull off.
4
5 Just as he was about to clear the stop, Henry gets an alert on his phone. Another student has just arrived at the stop and needs to get on.
5
6 He quickly stops the bus and opens the doors for the student. "Sorry I'm running a little late today Mr. Smith. Thank you for stopping and letting me on," says Lexi. "You're welcome," replies Henry, driving off to the next stop.
